

Lectio Divina: Divine Reading for Difficult Times

Reading 11

As we navigate difficult and challenging times, and we are unable to attend Church services, we offer some divine reading passages and guidance for following an ancient approach to contemplating passages from Scripture. Below, we will offer a text for you to follow this week.

We follow guidance from a wonderful little book entitled Too Deep for Words: Rediscovering Lectio Divina, by Thelma Hall.

This exercise can be carried out alone, or with others.

There are four steps to the Lectio Divina exercise:

1: Lectio – Reading and listening to the Word of God.

2: Meditatio – Reflecting on the word.

3: Oratio – The Word touches the heart.

4: Contemplatio – Entering the Silence “Too Deep for Words.”

Thelma Hall writes, “I prepare for this sacred reading by taking time to quiet my body and mind.” Take time to find a comfortable and favoured place to sit. Perhaps go through a few minutes of being conscious of your breathing.

Next, read the scripture passage with your full attention. This is step 1: Lectio – Reading and listening to the Word of God. Just read and re-read enough to take it all in.

Now, it’s time for Meditatio – Reflecting on the word. Perhaps think of fully seeing and understanding the passage for the very first time; even if you have read the passage before. You may find that a specific word or phrase seems to stand out from the rest of the passage. Take time to wonder why.

Thirdly, turn to Oratio – The Word touches the heart. Let the words tell you why you must listen to these words at this specific time. This is a ‘settling down’ moment where you can take as much time as you need to fully be with the words. You may wish to ask yourself, “Why is God focussing me on these specific words?”

Finally, turn to Contemplatio – Entering the Silence “Too Deep for Words.” Think of this as new beginning rather than the end of the process. Take time to imagine hearing these words for the very first time in terms of the depth of their guidance to you. God is taking over. Sit still. Do nothing for a little while.

With all this in mind, here are a couple of passages for you to take on in your Lectio Divina exercise this week:

Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever. <sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people both now and forevermore. <sup>3</sup> The scepter of the wicked will not remain over the land allotted to the righteous, for then the righteous might use their hands to do evil. <sup>4</sup> Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, to those who are upright in heart. <sup>5</sup> But those who turn to crooked ways the LORD will banish with the evildoers. Peace be upon Israel. (Psa 125:1 NIV)

Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. <sup>7</sup> Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. <sup>8</sup> Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. <sup>9</sup> Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings. <sup>10</sup> And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. <sup>11</sup> To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen. (1Pe 5:6 NIV)
